BSBWHS407 Assist with claims management and return to work programs

Assessment Task 2

Student name:

One of the employed workers at Australia Wide Construction Brisbane head office (name Jane Smith) has sent in a medical certificate stating they have Occupational Overuse Syndrome (repetitive strain injury from working at the computer).

You telephone the worker at home and discuss whether they wish to make a workers' compensation claim and she agrees to make a claim.

The workers' compensation scheme insurer is WorkCover Queensland. You now need to process the claim.

1. Why may you need to assist an injured worker make an application?

Assessor Comments:

Jane does not really understand her rights and obligations under workers' compensation law, or the opportunities for RTW. You need to explain them to her.

The first step will be to make notes of what you need to tell her. Then you will need to telephone Jane and give the explanation

2. Explain who the insurer is, and what Jane needs to do to make her claim.
